

CURRICULUM VITAE

Seichi Matsuo

Birth date December 20, 1950

Academic background:

1976 B. Medicine, Nagoya University

1981 Doc. Medicine, Nagoya University

Professional career:

Sept. 1981 Research Fellow, Mount Sinai Medical Center, U.S.
Aug. 1982 Research Fellow, State University of New York, U.S.
Oct. 1984 Physician, Chubu Rosai Hospital, Labour Welfare Corporation
May 1986 Research Associate, School of Medicine, Nagoya University
Jan. 2002 Professor, Graduate School of Medicine, Nagoya University
April 2002 Director, Department of Nephrology, Nagoya University Hospital
April 2007 Director, Nagoya University Hospital [until March 2015]
April 2009 Vice President, Nagoya University [until March 2017]
April 2010 Director, Innovative Research Center for Preventive Medical Engineering,
Nagoya University [until September 2016]
April 2012 Head of Industry-Academia-Government Collaboration, Nagoya University
Jan. 2014 Head of Academic Research & Industry-Academia-Government Collaboration,
Nagoya University [until March 2015]
April 2015 President, Nagoya University
June 2017 Vice President, The Japan Association of National Universities
Sept. 2017 Member, Council for Designing 100-Year Life Society
March 2018 Executive Member, Council for Science, Technology and Innovation

Present

President, Nagoya University

Vice President, The Japan Association of National Universities

Member, Council for Designing 100-Year Life Society

Executive Member, Council for Science, Technology and Innovation

As of June 26th, 2018