

Section 1 Fundamental Framework of Measures for the Aging Society

- The fundamental framework of national measures for the aging society is based on the Aged Society Basic Law (Act No. 129 of 1995).
  - The prime minister is the chairperson of Aging Society Policy Council and all cabinet ministers are appointed as members of the council. They create drafts on fundamental principles for measures for the aging society, adjust the mutual relationships between related administrative agencies necessary in implementing measures for the aging society, discuss important issues on measures for an aging society, and promote implementation of those measures.
  - An outline of measures for the aging society is what is obligated to the government to formulate based on the Aged Society Basic Law. It serves as a middle- and long- term basic and comprehensive guideline of the government's measures against the aging society.
  - As 5 years have passed after the initial outline of measures for the aging society was drawn up in July 1996, a new outline of measures was prepared and approved in a cabinet meeting on 28th December, 2001. As 10 years have passed since then, on September 7, 2012, through the drafting at Aging Society Policy Council, the Outline of measures for aging society were decided in the cabinet meeting.
  - For comprehensive promotion of measures based on the fundamental principle of the Aged Society Basic Law.
    - Change of Awareness on “Elderly Persons”—How to grasp them
    - Establishment of social security system for securing peace of mind in people's old age
    - Utilization of will and capability of the aged
    - Strengthening of regional power and realization of stable regional society
    - Realization of safe and peaceful living environment
    - Preparation for “Age of 90 years human life” from the younger time and realization of generation circulation
- Based on the above 6 fundamental way of thinking, we are going to promote the measures against aging society.
