1. Reference C.L.C.O. No. 40(IG), dated 4 February 1948, on the above subject.
2. The petition inclosed with above referenced C.L.C.O., requesting permission to gather digenia, is not favorably considered.
3. All known sources of digenia, including the Ryukyus and Loo-Choo Islands are being investigated with a view to arranging for import of digenia into Japan. Preliminary information indicates that there are no stocks available in the Ryukyus for export. Efforts are being continued to expedite importation from other areas.

SUBJECT: Telephone Directories for Use of Non-Occupation Force Personnel and Firms

課
上級軍電話帳の印刷販賣許可の件

1. The Japanese Government is authorized to print copies of occupation force telephone directories for sale, at central telephone offices, to commercial firms, agencies and individuals not authorized to receive communications services on occupation force procurement instruments.

2. Prices charged will be sufficient to cover all costs incurred in printing, publishing and distributing these directories, including administrative expenses.

3. Before selling occupation force directories, the Japanese Government will excise all instructions for placing long distance calls over military or AT toll systems, and for reporting telephone trouble calls to an army repair service number, and will stamp or print in some conspicuous place on the directories instructions for reaching the regular Japanese Toll, Information, and Telephone Repair Service switchboards.

4. Direct communication between Civil Communications Section, General Headquarters, Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers, and the Ministry of Communications within the scope of this memorandum is authorized.

SUBJECT: Roster of Australian Civilians in Japan
TO : Japanese Government

- Reference is made to following memoranda from the Japanese Government, subject as above:
  - C.L.C.O. No. 1342(IG) of 19 April 1948.
  - C.L.C.O. No. 1815(IG) of 19 May 1948.
- The lists of Australian civilians inclosed with referenced memoranda have been forwarded to the Australian Mission in Japan.
- The Mission has informed this Headquarters that several of the individuals listed possess dual nationality, and has requested that the following information concerning the status of such dual nationals be transmitted to the Japanese Government:

"Persons born in Australia of Japanese parents would become British subjects under the Nationality Act 1920-1946 of the Commonwealth of Australia. They would retain that status provided they have not taken any action which would result in their forfeiting their British nationality. If they are also Japanese nationals in contemplation of Japanese Nationality Law, they would not be granted any protection or assistance by the Government of the Commonwealth of Australia whilst they are in Japan".
